Journal 1865

Dec. 1. Sprinkled rain about 3 A.M. & somewhat warm, Cloudy until 11 A.M. then cleared of mists with a cold West wind & blustering clear at Sunset According to old style the first part of the month will be a little rainy & cloudy the latter part clear cold & windy

Dec. 2 Cloudy at Sunrise and continued so with a west wind and not very cold until 9 A.M. when the Sun appeared to be melting through snow and it looks very much like snow at 11 A.M. it cleared the Sun came out - wind East - then, a little after noon wind veered to West & remained so all the afternoon with a somewhat hazy sky According to old style Jan'y will be cloudy with changeable winds and perhaps snow that is the first - the latter half will be somewhat warmer and more pleasant - partly hazy with west winds

Dec 3. Cloudy wind West at Sunrise very mild for the time of year at 8 A.M.

the Sun tried to shine the clouds very thin Sun very red. at 9.30 AM clouded up some thicker and continued so until sundown and about the same temperature very much like Indian summer and according to old style Feby will be a warm & cloudy month throughout with West winds and taking the three days together shows that this winter will be mild and open particularly the two last months.
